TRANSFER

July 29, 1927.

Dr. Henry W. Luce,
150 Fifth Avenue,
New York City.

My dear Dr. Luce:

I have your memorandum concerning Mr. Gibb's residence list. Mr. Gibb has prepared for me, in accordance with the request which you made in May and which it was not practicable to fill out without the knowledge which Mr. Gibb alone had, a full schedule of the Mexican costs of each individual residence, and a full analysis of this together with the analysis of the contributions for it I shall try to complete and send back to the office. It is wise for me to check this over and complete it because there are some impressions which Mr. Gibb has with reference to particular residences and particular gifts which are not correct. I shall tie this up into our previous schedules so that we can see just where we are on it. I am returning the memoranda which you sent me in May on this item.

I am sorry that you were not here Friday so that I could have said a word of farewell for the summer, as our small family is making a trek to Marshfield, Massachusetts.

With every good wish and the hope that the summer heat and all the things there are to be done will not burden you too greatly,

I am

Faithfully yours,

Secretary.
