PEKING

Extracts from Letters of President Stuart to H. W. Luce

Peitaiho, July 27th, 1927.

Regarding the Berry Library: "I am sorry that you did not wait to consult Gibb, who is due at the office in New York in a few days and has all the information. I am writing him and hope that among you the matter may be put through without further delay. My own conviction is that we shall need all of the $3,700 to complete the shell which is now standing unfinished and ugly because of lack of funds."

Peking, July 28th, 1927.

"There are no records in the Construction Bureau regarding Berry Library excess cost. I suggest therefore that the figures furnished before be taken as final and that you collect G.$3,700 as soon as possible."
