TRUSTEES OF PEKING UNIVERSITY

To the Trustees of Peking University

Dear Sirs:

I regret that the journey to the Pacific Coast in the interest of the University prevents my meeting with you. I shall be thinking much of you as you consider the very urgent situation of the University. How much longer that fine group of men and women can endure in their scattered, inadequate and poorly adapted quarters, I do not know. Certainly it is causing a large amount of inefficiency; and an unparalleled opportunity is passing and cannot be measurably seized until the University can lift up its head
