have been for Peking University.
Now that the great vision begins to materialize, I feel that further unsettled plans for the family here in America will not be wise at the present time.

With all good wishes,
Sincerely & cordially yours,

Elizabeth P. Luce.

(Mrs. Henry W.)