December 29th, 1922.

Mr. C. W. Douglass,
Presbyterian Press,
155 North Szechien Road,
Shanghai, China.

My dear Mr. Douglass:-

On the memorandum of book sales which I have just received from Miss Bosworth of the Mission Book Company I find that "The Aids to Acts" and also my "Harmony of the Gospel" are out of print and that only seventy-five copies are left of my "Aids to the Study of the Life of Christ".

On June 14th I wrote you regarding reprinting the "Aids to the Study of the Acts" and have your letter of 17/8/22. I trust by this time the book is printed and in the hands of the Mission Press.

Unfortunately I have no record of writing regarding the other books. Certainly they ought to be kept going. If I have not written regarding the reprinting of the "Harmon of the Gospel" will you please print 2500 copies from the plates which I think are in your possession.

Then as to the "Aids to the Study of the Life of Christ" I had hoped to be back in China at the time they were reprinted. I cannot recall now whether I wrote Mr. MacIntosh or yourself in regard to reprinting this last book. If I did, why of course it would be well to follow what I said before. On the other hand if I have not written you about reprinting the "Aids to the Study of the Life of Christ" will you print 2000 copies of them.so I will leave it to you as to the grade of paper that shall be used, but I am anxious to get them out at the very lowest cost compatible with having them useful and fairly decent in appearance. I am trust to you of course to give me the very best possible price that you can.

In your letter you referred to changing the advertisement in the "Recorder" until the "Aids of the Acts" were reprinted. I take it for granted that you will make this change.

We have not as yet seen Mr. MacIntosh. I can well understand how with him away your work is greatly increased.

With all best wishes for the New Year, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,
