Dear Eric

Leighton no doubt has written you about the possibility of Sherman going out to Gen Chiang. How would we best deal with it? In view of the need of early action would it not be well:

1. For you to write me your views.
2. For me to go to Toronto from Erie & have a frank talk with him; and then with all the factors before us try to decide it after I get to New York.

If you get this in time to write Saturday
