Euclid Avenue at East Twelfth Street

in my estimation, too large amount of architectural "fuel" on the part of our Building Committee, & this girls smothered over by apparently urgent administrative demands. Even if we don't have an Inf-irmary next Sept. there will be plenty of room for that. I am sure plans can carry over the period. The thing to avoid is for the temporary advantage of a year to spoil something for a life-time, especially as the girls will be in Peking in due time. Even if she went out next September (doubtful), it is rather hard
