DIARY
and
DAILY
REMINDER

*Lives of great men all remind us,
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.*

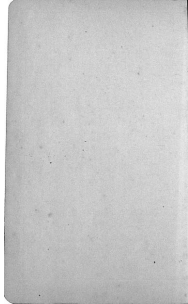

*Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.*

—LONGFELLOW.

~~Is there a single one of us who does not long to have his religion real?
I was shocked, and hurt, and angry, and thoughtful one day last spring when I found that one of my fellow-ministers had sold this down now - wait till the time you want to use it.~~

Listening. We have all protested that we must and do depend on the guidance of God - we pray for it then take no time to answer the notes for it honestly - We think if we ask for guidance, that thoughts will be given to us right in the stream & stress of all the work - So they will,
but how much more if we definitely set ourselves to listen.

'Y. P. want something real - Can I give it to them? I should say, can God use me to give it to them?

your spirit, so that others may also have wonderful and glorious you are our glory, not to draw others to you

That you should know God - Knowing God through trusting him through the typology, etc. Then after learning to know him a little - then pass on the idea of what the Father is like - a son of God, for God glorified himself, he shape - incarnation, suffering

What does? The door to greater usefulness, to helping - whom? Helping everyone who comes in contact with me if he needs my help. How shall I know whether he needs any help I can give him? Look at him, trying to understand ^{him} and listen for God's voice to lead me what to do.

Is this another sin that will take us away from the church?

We are getting a new idea of God getting to know Him in a different way.

Am I living a surrendered life?

Am I able to face sickness death

RULES FOR SPELLING

Words ending in e drop that letter before the termination able, as in move, measurable, unless ending in ce or pe, when it is retained, as in change, changeable, etc.

Words of one syllable ending in a consonant, with a single vowel before it double that consonant in derivatives, as ship, shipping, etc. But if ending in a consonant with a double vowel before it, they do not double the consonant in derivatives; as troop, trooper, etc.

Words of more than one syllable ending in a consonant preceded by a single vowel, and accented on the last syllable, double that consonant in derivatives; as commit, committed; but except chagrin, chagrined.

All words of one syllable ending in i, with a single vowel before it, have double i at the close; as milk, milk.

All words of one syllable ending in i, with a double vowel before it, have only one i at the close as mail, mail.

The words fortell, distill, instill and fulfill retain the double i of their primitives. Derivatives of skill, will and fall also retain the i when the accent falls on these words; as skillness, skilled, willful, fallness.

Words of more than one syllable ending in i have only one i at the close; as delightful, faithful; unless the accent falls on the last syllable; as in belief, etc.

Words ending in i, double that letter in the termination ty.

Participle ending in ing, from verbs ending in e, lose the final e; as have, having; make, making, etc.; but verbs ending in er retain both; see, seeing. Dye, to color, and sing, to scorch, however, must retain the e before ing.

All adverbs ending in ly and nouns ending in ment retain the e final of the primitive; as brave, bravely; refine, refinement; except words ending in pe; as judge, judgment.

Nouns ending in y, preceded by a vowel, form their plural by adding s; as money, moneys; but if y is preceded by a consonant, it is changed to ies in the plural; as bounty, bounties.

Words whose primitives end in y change the y into i; as beauty, beautiful.

WHAT TO DO IN CASE OF ACCIDENT

DROWNING. 1. Loosen clothing, if any. 2. Empty lungs of water by lying body on its stomach and lifting it by the middle so that the head hangs down. Jerk the body a few times. 3. Pull tongue forward, using handkerchief, or pin with string, if necessary. 4. Induce action of respiration by alternately compressing and expanding the lower ribs, about twenty times a minute. Alternately raising and lowering the arms from the sides up above the head will stimulate the action of the lungs. Let it be done gently but persistently. 5. Apply warmth and friction to extremities. 6. By holding tongue forward, closing the nostrils and pressing the "Adam's apple" back (as to close entrance to stomach), direct inhalation may be tried. Take a deep breath and breathe it forcibly into the mouth of patient, compress the chest to expel the air, and repeat the operation. 7. DON'T GIVE UP! People have been saved after hours of patient, vigorous effort. 8. When breathing begins, get patient into a warm bed, give warm drinks, or spirits in teaspoonfuls, fresh air and quiet.

BURNS AND SCALDS. Cover with cooking soda and lay wet cloths over it. White of eggs and olive oil. Olive or linseed oil, plain or mixed with chalk or whiting.

LIGHTNING. Dash cold water over person struck.

SUNSTROKE. Loosen clothing. Get patient into shade, and apply ice cold water to head.

MAD DOG OR SNAKE BITE. Tie cord tight above wound. Suck the wound and cauterize with caustic or white-hot iron at once, or cut out adjoining parts with a sharp knife.

VENOMOUS INSECTS' STINGS etc. Apply weak ammonia, oil, salt water, or iodine.
