know of any way in which we might interest either the original contributors to the Scranton-Luce Social Center, or others, in building up a more adequate fund for maintaining both the property and the activities of the Center?

Very cordially yours,

BAG:PW