O God. Whose love is over all

DENVER. 8. 6. 8. 6. D.

JOHN HAYNES HOLMES, 1906 — HENRY HOUSELEY, 1896

1. O God, Whose love is o - ver all The chil - dren of Thy grace,
2. To see Thee in the sun by day, And in the stars by night,
3. To see Thee in each qui - et home, Where faith and love a - bide,

Whose rich and ten - der bless - ings fall On ev - ery age and place;
In wav - ing grass and o - cean spray, And leaves and flow -ers bright;
In school and church, where all may come, To seek Thee side by side;

Hear Thou the songs and prayers we raise In ea - ger joy to Thee,
To hear Thy voice, like spok - en word, In ev - ery breeze that blows,
To see Thee in each hu - man life, Each strug-gling hu - man heart,

And teach us, as we sound Thy praise, In all things Thee to see.
In ev - ery song of ev - ery bird, And ev - ery brook that flows.
Each path by which, in ea - ger strife, Men seek the bet - ter part. A-men.
