My dear Dr. Luce:

Undoubtedly you are planning to be in New York one of these days and have deferred answering my letter of February 9th until such a time as you can see me personally. That, of course, will be much better than a written or typewritten communication, but we do not want you to get away for China without giving us your recollection of the $25,000 for the McKelvy Infirmary. This letter is not meant to hurry you, but just as a quiet reminder.

Certainly you must be looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to your anticipated trip to the Orient. We most heartily extend our wishes that your tour will be an exceedingly pleasant and enjoyable experience.

Very cordially yours,

CAE:RC
