pleasure to find your letter waiting for us when we got back on Friday, and we are only sorry that we were not able to return sooner and so catch you before you start your trip. We very much hope you will let us know the minute you get back, and that we can have a visit from you. Please don't let it be too hurried a one, either.