PHILADELPHIA 25th May, 1928.

Mr. Olin D. Wanamaker,
Yenching University,
150 Fifth Ave.,
New York City, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Wanamaker:

I am just leaving the city and have not as yet been able to get the definite information you ask concerning Mr. C. T. Ludington.

You probably know he is tremendously interested in aviation and is one of our leaders in that respect. His father, who died last Fall, was a presbyterian and gave liberally to the Church, but whether the son is following in his father's footsteps in this respect or not, I have not been able to learn.

Will write you as soon as I get back to the city on Monday.

Yours very sincerely,

Chas. E. Beury
