C. T. LUDINGTON
OLD LYME, CONNECTICUT

OLD LYME 359

frank in saying that I have just barely skimmed most of the reports. I confidently expect to be able to produce more concrete evidence of my interest some day but do not see a possibility of doing so as long as conditions continue as they are.

I am supposed to attend certain meetings in and around Philadelphia once a month. Actually, I go to some of them but I usually only see New York from the Hellgate Bridge or rushing across the city to the Pennsylvania Station via a couple of shops! If I do land there in a less breathless manner, I will certainly let you know.

With best regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

C. T. Ludington

C. T. Ludington

CTL:w

3 4 1 5 2 2 7 1293