

Repository

Special Collections/University Archives
Ellen Clarke Bertrand Library
Bucknell University
Lewisburg, PA 17837

Contact

Doris Dysinger
Curator, Special Collections/University Archives
dysinger@bucknell.edu 570-577-3101

Denominational affiliation (historic or current)

Baptist (historic)

URL

<http://www.bucknell.edu/x18881.xml>

Cited in Crouch Christianity in China, 1989

PA-100

Source of information

<http://www.bucknell.edu/x18881.xml>

Date data gathered

20 January 2006; updated 31 August 2006

Collection 1

name of collection

Burma-Bucknell. Papers, 1858-1976 (?)

background

Eugenio Kincaid, Baptist missionary on leave from his post in Burma in 1846, became a charter trustee of the University at Lewisburg (renamed Bucknell University in 1886.) Upon his return to Burma, Kincaid encouraged Maung Shaw Loo, the university's first international student, to study in Lewisburg, thus forging a long connection between Bucknell and Burma.

access/use restrictions

Records post-1926 subject to copyright/publication rules, permission to publish may be required (these records are not related to missionary work); some materials restricted due to sensitive political situation in Myanmar.

materials

correspondence

Letters between Eugenio Kincaid and the American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, dated from 1823 to 1849.

Letters from and concerning Shaw Loo, dated 1913-1957.

Translation of letter from King of Burma to President James Buchanan, and reply letter from Buchanan, dated May 19, 1857, both delivered by Eugenio Kincaid.

Letter from President Andrew Johnson to King of Burma, October 1, 1867.

miscellaneous

Other university records related to Burma—programs of Burma-Bucknell including Weekend celebrations, newsletters, articles, artifacts, newspaper clippings, pamphlets, photos, addresses, e-mails.

serials

Shwe Wa, Maung. Burma Baptist chronicle. [Judson sesquicentennial ed.]
Publication info: Rangoon : Board of Publications, Burma Baptist Convention, 1963.

Collection 2

name of collection

Baptist Records

background

Bucknell University, formerly named the University at Lewisburg, was founded and heavily influenced by a group of Pennsylvania Baptists.

access/use restrictions

None

materials

List of Bucknell Baptist Ministers and Missionaries, no date.

§§§§