

Repository

Special Collections
Joyner Library
East Carolina University
East Fifth Street
Greenville, NC 27858-4353

Contact

Jonathan Dembo
Department Head
demboj@ecu.edu
252-328-2661

Denominational affiliation (historic or current)

None

URL

<http://www.ecu.edu/cs-lib/spclcoll/index.cfm>

Cited in Crouch Christianity in China, 1989

NC-70

Source of data

<http://www.ecu.edu/cs-lib/spclcoll/index.cfm>

Date data gathered

May 19, 2006; updated July 18, 2006

Collection 1

name of collection

Charles Henry Appleton Dall Papers, 1872-1874, 1879, 1885
Manuscript Collection #751

background

Charles Henry Appleton Dall (February 12, 1816 - July 18, 1886) was the first American foreign missionary in the Unitarian Church. He graduated from Harvard in 1837 and from Harvard Divinity School in 1840. Before his arrival in India, he had served several Unitarian churches in America as both an evangelist and a pastor. In September, 1844, he married the former Caroline Healey Wells, who later became a prolific feminist polemicist. Dall arrived in India in 1855 and rarely returned home between his arrival and his 1886 death in Calcutta.

extent

0.110 cubic feet

finding aid

<http://digital.lib.ecu.edu/special/ead/results.aspx?Page=0&i=5>

materials

correspondence, clippings, and a cartes de visite of Dall.

Collection 2

name of collection

R. Jean Black Papers, 1947-1960
Manuscript Collection #736

background

R. Jean Black was a Presbyterian missionary to Pakistan between 1947 and 1960. During her time in Pakistan, she corresponded frequently with her family in Petrolia, Pennsylvania. Her letters were primarily written from the American mission girls' school in Pasrur, West Punjab, Pakistan. In addition, letters were sent from various towns and villages in Pakistan as she traveled.

extent

0.044 cubic feet

finding aid

<http://digital.lib.ecu.edu/special/ead/results.aspx?Page=0&i=6>

materials

Papers (1947-1960) including correspondence, references concern Bible, auditing of books, school events, receipts, pilgrims, and miscellaneous.

§§§§