My Dear Mr. Garfield:-

I feel that I owe you an explanation. I wrote you last summer that I had accepted a position here in Plainfield and was returning to take up duties in September, and would run in to see you when I got back. Instead I went to see Mr. Shibley at the Medical Center first, and had a most discouraging visit, for Mr Shibley advised giving up the position, and resting for a few months longer. With the idea of going back to China, I have been only too glad to cooperate. A second visit to Mr Shibley a few days ago is not much more encouraging however, and although I did not mention China Mr Shibley (who was in China for several years himself) very strongly advised against my returning for a year or so. I am terribly disappointed, although I agree with Mr Shibly that I must be 100% well before thinking of going back. I will not give up the idea of returning however, and when I am well enough to go, if there is still need of help. I will be only too happy to go back. || Very Sincerely Florence M Warner

My dear Miss Warner:

I have your letter of December 6th and am disturbed by the word that you are not planning to return to China. I have heard that this is due in part to your feeling that inadequate provision was being made by the University for retiring allowances for members of the staff. I have to acknowledge that the University, and in part I myself, have been slow in dealing with this matter because of preoccupation, but I believe we have it now in shape where it will go forward steadily and productively to results.

The plan, as at present drafted, calls not only for provision being made for paying the premiums on retiring allowances from the time the plan goes into effect, but also for providing eventually for retiring allowances for members of the staff, based upon the period at which they first began their service to the University.

You will know best about your own ease and the situation with respect to your return to China, but I do not hesitate to assure you that all our friends in China will be very much disappointed if you do not return, and will welcome you with great heartiness if you find it practicable to make your plans for this. Should you conclude to do this I will be very glad to expedite in any way possible the securing of your reservations.

Cordially yours,

Miss Florence Mr. Warner,
Plainfield, N. J., U. S. A.

My dear Miss Warner:

We have just received from Miss Priest and Doctor North several letters about your resignation and we are extremely sorry that step seemed to be necessary for you. I only regret that the matter of pensions has not yet been worked out, but we are hoping Miss Priest will be pushing on it sufficiently to have something definite before the time for your furlough to end, and that then, or any time when you can, that you will come back to the hospital. You have made a very enviable place for yourself, not only in the hospital but in the community, and no one can fill it but yourself. We do hope, therefore, that matters will so shape up that you can return. I would urge this much more vigorously, except for the political situation and the uncertainties of the future, but if these political matters work out all right and we can still continue to operate as Christian institutions, both in the hospital and in the University, we must certainly have you back. The experience of the schools and hospitals up river is not at all encouraging. They are practically all closed and I presume most of them have been looted. I know this is the case at Liling, Yochow, and probably at Changsha and all other places, but we have just heard that the agreement between Mr. O'Malley and Eugene Chen has been signed and that one term of that agreement was the getting rid of the Russian advisers. If this is true, it means that the Kuomintang Right Wing forces are going to kick out and control the radical Left Wing Russian element, as it is this element, under the inspiration and direction of the Russians that has made all of the real trouble in Hunan and Hupeh and elsewhere. I am sure that when the Chinese settle down to realities and begin to take up the burden of government they will want these hospitals very much indeed and will want our schools; and if they will allow us to function, even under or in cooperation with the Chinese whom we want, then I think we can look forward to some years of good service yet. I trust these matters will more or less emerge before the time for your return comes. In the meantime I approve entirely of your taking some work in some of the hospitals there, and also of the University's paying your full furlough salary in addition (especially if you return to us) to what you are able to earn. I think we should pay your salary regularly anyway, whether you work or not, and you certainly need it and it is not very much anyway.

We have not had any mail from Shanghai for the last two or three days, owing to strikes in Shanghai affecting the post office and a good many factory workers, etc. The strikes are not specially against the foreigners but more political. The South also seems to be conquering Chekiang as it has apparently captured Hangchow, so we may be under the South in the course of a month or so. No one can tell what will happen, but the agreement at Hankow between Eugene Chen and the British representative is going to make matters much better, I am sure.

Hoping that you are having a very enjoyable time in America and are keeping well, and with very highest regards, heart and my prayers I have felt very close to you all, and there has never been a year in my life when I have longed so to be with you all and do my little share, but for my Father & Mother's sake, I have been glad to be here, and were I in China I would only be one more problem. Mr Bowen I did so appreciate your letter written Feb 22 and I was just about ready to write to both you and Mr Hutchinson that I would return next year when all this happened. I cannot believe that this is the end of the work we all loved and tried our best to build right. I would be very sad were it not for the feeling deep down in my heart that these things are not in our hands, and I do believe that our Heavenly Father will bring out of all this strife some lasting good for the Chinese people whom we went to help and serve. I just know that all the work of the missionaries these many years in China, cannot be lost know what the future will bring. If we can go back

My dear Miss Warner;

It seems very good indeed to be writing to you and especially to have Miss Priest doing the work. I am not going to write very much because I hope I can see you in the not too distant future as you are not very far away.

Miss VanVliet and Miss Hunt will have told you about the terrible things that happened there in Nanking. We would not feel so badly about it all if it was not for Dr. Williams. I rather think it will do more good than harm in the long run, and even Dr. Williams' death certainly has not been in vain, because it more than anything else in the whole Nanking incident impressed the right thinking Chinese of the necessity of checking the communistic element in the Nationalist movement.

You will see from the Board of Managers meeting - the minutes have been sent to you - how splendidly our Chinese staff is going on. It will be a little more difficult with the hospital as there are serious personal difficulties with Dr. Chang and Dr. Tseng - the eye man who came to take Dr. Peterson's work and who is a Hunanese. I am rather down on them! Even so, I believe the hospital will be so desperately needed that they will find some way of carrying it on with the aid of the committee which we have appointed.

You will be interested in the enclosed appeal which the Trustees are making and will be glad I am sure to push it along anyway you can with any of your friends. One of the saddest things about the whole matter is the impossibility of ever again living and working with such a wonderful community and friends as we had in Nanking. Nanking will never be the same again to anyone who returns.

Hoping that you are keeping well and that I may see you in the near future,

Very cordially yours,

My dear Miss Warner:

Recent letters and cablegrams from Nanking have informed us that the University Hospital which has, as you know, during the last fifteen months been operated by government authorities is now being returned. The field urgently needs both doctors and nurses to carry the work on.

For the nursing staff Miss Hynds and Miss Van Vliet are already planning to return and are sailing on August 16th from Vancouver. The personnel of the medical staff is not fully decided yet, but we are hoping that Dr. Trimmer and possibly Dr. Daniels and Dr. Slater will be available.

Dr. Bowen has just written saying that we ought, by all means, to try to persuade you to go back to the work in Nanking this fall if that can possibly be arranged. There is no question of the urgency of the need there and I know that there will be no question of your warm welcome if you could go.

Will you please let me know your reaction to the proposal so that we can immediately take the matter up more formally if there is a possibility of your going?

Your letter received

I am indeed hoping to return to Nanking some day, for I am continually receiving letters from our coworkers, and their constant friendship and loyalty, makes me very homesick for our Chinese friends and our wonderful work there. However I have been off duty since Jan 5th with anemia, apparently came home from China with it, but did not discover it for several months. I believe myself at the present time to be in as perfect condition physically as I ever was, but I think it would be only fair to the University as well as myself to work here for a year and test my endurance, as I would never want to return unless, I felt sure that I am physically fit for the work. Another reason, a few days before your letter came I accepted a position in Plainfield for a year, and as I have kept them waiting several weeks for my decision, I would not like to break my word now. As far as I know now I will be ready and glad to return to Waukegan a year from now, if there is at that time still need of another Nurse there. As I think things through it would seem to me the best plan any way, as this first year, will simply be a matter of making adjustments, and rounding up as many of the old staff as possible but it will not be possible this first year to do much towards organizing the Nurses Training Schools. Miss Van Vleet took charge of the Training School when I left, and should I go a year later our furthorhts would not conflict. I will drop in to see you when I return to Plainfield in September.

Trusting that this will be satisfactory

Dear Mr. Garside:

Miss Warner, who has been under my care since last summer, has consulted me regarding the advisability of returning to take up active work in Nanking. It is my distinct feeling that such a step would be most inadvisable at this time. While Miss Warner is in much better health now than she has been for months, her anemia has not entirely cleared up and her endurance is still much below par. While she may be quite well enough in a year or so to return, we have no proof now that she will be able to stand up under the strain and stress of work in China, with the added climatic handicap. In view of her slow recovery, I have advised Miss Warner to give up the idea, for the present, of returning to China--in fact, I rather feel that it would be better if she gave up the idea entirely. //

Will you be so good as to send a copy of this letter to Dr. Bowen at the University of Nanking?

Dear Mr. Garside:

Subsequent to the Conference in the office of Dr. Arthur J. Brown on October 8th, at which I read a letter from the Chinese Minister concerning compensation for losses in Nanking, I had a personal conversation with the Minister on October 11th when I explained at length the attitudes of the mission boards working in China towards the question of such compensation for losses in China. On October 16th I sent him a brief note asking him not to take any further action until I should send him later information. On October 18th I sent him a brief note informing him that the Presbyterian and Baptist Boards had adopted resolutions in effect not to make any claim through the United States Government for such compensation. On October 19th I sent him a copy of my memorandum - No. 79 - which contained the text of the resolutions adopted by several boards on this subject. I mention these dates in order that you may understand the reference to them in the enclosed letter which I have today received from the Chinese Minister and which I now take pleasure in transmitting to you.

My dear Dr. Warnshuis:

In accordance with my telephone conversation I will give you herewith a few facts relative to Mr. Richard M. Tisinger who we are hoping may be appointed to the University of Nanking staff.

Mr. Tisinger has spent a number of years in China under the Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Church in the U.S. Our office does not have as complete information as we would like concerning the dates he was in China and the exact work he did. I know, however, that his work was done in Central China, at Yochow and Huping, and combined agricultural and educational work. Those who are acquainted with the work Tisinger did while in China are warm in their praise of what he accomplished. Mr. Reisner, who is well acquainted with what he has accomplished in the past, is very anxious to have him go out to Nanking.

For the last few years Tisinger has been in America, spending most of his time at Cornell working for a Ph.D. This work is now practically completed and I believe that Tisinger will secure his degree during this spring or summer if he is able to continue his studies at Cornell. The greatest difficulty he has to encounter is the financial one. I believe he has not been receiving any support from his Mission Board for some time, and has been forced to combine with his study an effort to provide for his family. As a result he has gotten somewhat in debt.

We have presented to the Reformed Board an urgent invitation to cooperate in the University through the appointment and support of Mr. Tisinger as a member of the Nanking staff. From the correspondence I have had with Dr. Bartholomew I have been hopeful that the Reformed Board would see its way clear to take this action, but I understand from informal sources of information that at its recent meeting the Reformed Board postponed any definite action in regard to Mr. Tisinger's appointment to Nanking.

I understand that Tisinger has been looking forward to return to the field this summer and has practically burned his bridges behind him in that he has refused various offers for work in this country next year. It appears that if his return to China is now postponed indefinitely it will leave him in a very difficult state so far as his personal plans and finances are concerned. It might also mean that he would permanently be lost to the work in China.

We would appreciate anything you may be able to do in the way of urging our friends on the Reformed Board to give favorable and early consideration to the proposal that Tisinger be sent out to Hanking this summer for work in Rural Education.

I talked with him about the case but he was not fully informed as he was not present at the last meeting of the Executive Committee and he simply urged me to take the matter up with Dr. Bartholomew. My dear Dr. Warnshuis:

Let me thank you for your letter of May 16th telling of the efforts you made on behalf of Mr. Tisinger.

There seems to have been a very puzzling lack of understanding between Mr. Tisinger and the Reformed Board relative to his return this year. Mr. Tisinger tells us that he made it plain to Dr. Bartholomew that he was ready and anxious to go out to Nanking this Fall if the Board would send him. Dr. Bartholomew writes that the decision of the Reformed Board postponing the question of Mr. Tisinger's return was taken on the distinct understanding that Mr. Tisinger wished to remain in America for a year or two to complete his Ph. D., and to clear off certain financial obligations.

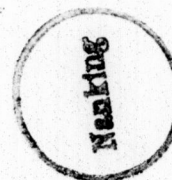

Within the last few days I have written both to Mr. Tisinger and Dr. Bartholomew expressing the hope that they can reach a fuller understanding. Meantime it seems to me there is very little more that any of us can do.

My dear Dr. Warren,

We have just received from the University of Nanking a cablegram reading as follows:-

"SECURE GEORGE WARREN, ALTERNATE BOYLE, CABLE DE-CISION IMMEDIATELY."

Apparently there is no information available in our office that enables us to arrive at any very intelligible explanation of this cablegram, so I am writing to you in the hope that you may be able to assist.

When Mr. Buck was in New York something over a year ago, he prepared a list of visiting specialists whom he hoped might be able to spend varying periods in Nanking in connection with the Land Utilization and Population Project. On this list we find listed
"G. F. Warren, Cornell University" for possible service of about six months, giving courses in agricultural policy and research methods.
However, the time then tentatively suggested was from May 1, 1930, to November 1, 1930. So far as I can discover, we have had nothing from the field this year giving any intimation that they are hoping to secure your assistance this year, though it is quite possible that some letter will shortly be arriving, or may have been lost in transit.

During the last few weeks we have received a number of letters concerning the proposed arrangements with Mr. Stanley Warren, whom it is hoped will go out this summer as a specialist in the department of Rural Economics; but I assume that the cablegram has no reference to him.

Can you shed any light on the factors back of this cablegram? Possibly you may have had some communication from Mr.
Buck or Mr. Reiser, or some of the other administrative officers in Nanking, which prepares you for this message. We would of course be happy indeed to assist in every way in the working out of the arrangements implied by this cable.

Dear Mr. Garside:

Mr. J. R. Raeburn will accept a position at the University of Nanking for two years at $2500 plus travel expenses.

Mr. G. W. Hedlund will accept a position for one year at $3000 plus travel expenses.

This makes quite a considerable financial sacrifice to Hedlund, as he receives $3500 on a nine months' basis here and can use the other three months for increased income or other work. I am not sure how much difference it makes in travel cost to go by way of the Pacific or to go by way of Russia. They would prefer to go by way of Russia.

I suggest that you correspond directly with them in case of this department.

Very truly yours,

My dear Dr. Warren:

We are grateful to you for your letter of May 9th, informing us of the willingness of Mr. Raeburn and Mr. Hedlund to accept positions at the University of Nanking. We understand that these appointments are being made on the basis of negotiations you have carried on with Professor J. Lossing Buck. Dr. Buck is sometimes a bit careless about keeping our office informed of just what he is planning, so the only direct information we have in the matter is that contained in a note from Mr. Lochhead of the United States Treasury Department, transmitting a radio message received from Dr. Buck about ten days ago. This message which you have, no doubt, seen reads as follows:-

"President Chen approves appointment Raeburn and Hedlund on specialist basis. Satisfied with technical and personal qualifications. Arrange with Warren, Cornell University. Need is urgent for both men for graduate work agricultural economics next semester. Funds available special Grant Rockefeller."

I was in Ithaca for a few hours this week and while I did not have an opportunity to talk with you or to meet with Mr. Raeburn and Mr. Hedlund I heard many good things about both of them. I hope that I may have an opportunity to meet both of them and also that they may meet the members of our Nanking Board of Founders before they sail for China.

We recognize that Mr. Raeburn and Mr. Hedlund are going out to the University for specialized positions and that the arrangements with them are not the same as would be made with regular members of the staff. But we are anxious that the home base group responsible for the University will establish the same close and friendly relations with them as it has always maintained with such specialists going out from Cornell as Dr. Love, Dr. Meyers, and Dr. Wiggin.

I am at this time writing to Mr. Raeburn and Mr. Hedlund expressing our pleasure at their willingness to accept appointment to the University of Nanking. I am compelled to write in rather general terms because our information as to the nature of their arrangements is so inadequate. I hope that far

Dear Mr. Garside:

I received the following from Mr. Lochhead:

"The following message has been received from Professor Buck who requests that it be forwarded to you:

'On behalf of the President of University of Nanking please offer positions to Raeburn at $2500 United States currency per year for two years and to Hedlund $3000 United States currency for two years if possible otherwise one year. Difficult to offer Hedlund more but if still unacceptable please wire his minimum requirement. Second class travel expenses also provided for both. Both should arrive about September 5, 1936, and salary begins and ends with date of beginning journey and date of return in United States. Travel arrangements and contracts will be made by Mr. B. A. Garside, Associated Boards of Christian Colleges, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York. Kindly send copy of this message to Garside and ask him make arrangements.'"

If this is sufficient authority, I would suggest that you take up the contract definitely with Mr. Raeburn and Mr. Hedlund.

My dear Dr. Warren:

I am happy to report that at last we have completed all the formalities of the appointment of Mr. Raeburn and Mr. Hedlund.

Mr. Raeburn was here in the office on Thursday of last week and met with the Candidate Committee of our Manking Board of Founders. He made a very favorable impression on all the members of the Committee and we were happy to have this opportunity to meet him just before he sailed for his home in Scotland. I hope that Mr. Hedlund may also have occasion to visit New York City before he sails so that we may get to know him a little better. All of our Manking Trustees take a sincere personal interest in the members of the staff, and such personal contacts are worth while from many angles.

The amount of travel funds we are advancing to Mr. Raeburn and Mr. Hedlund will probably be almost sufficient to cover the cost of their journey by way of Russia. I am asking them to make final adjustments with the Field Treasurer after they arrive in Manking for I have not had time to secure definite instructions from the field with regard to their travelling by any other route than the usual one.

We are sincerely grateful to you for the time, interest, and care you have given in helping to secure these two men. I am sure that their service at the University of Manking will be of great value to the institution. I hope also that they will find their stay in China a pleasant and profitable experience.

We have received from the field triplicate copies of the contract which the University has drawn^{up} covering your one year of service at the institution in the position of statistician. I have gone over this proposed short term appointment with the Chairman of the Candidate Committee of the Board of Trustees, and have secured his approval of the arrangement. If you find the contract to be satisfactory and in accordance with your understanding with Mr. Buck, will you please sign and return two copies and keep the third for your own information?

Immediately upon the signing of this contract we will be glad to make sailing arrangements for you. Will you please inform us as to the port from which you wish to depart, the approximate date of sailing you would like, and the type of accommodation you wish us to secure for you? Our office will request the steamship company to give you the benefit of the missionary reduction of ten per cent and we will also give you the benefit of our agency commission of five per cent. I believe you are also entitled to clergy fare certificates which will materially reduce the cost of your railway travel across the United States.

Since it is already late for us to be making steamship bookings if we are to secure special accommodations we should not delay any longer than necessary in completing these details.

Contract to Chen
TRANSFER

Dear Mr. Garside,

I am enclosing the two copies of the contract. It is entirely satisfactory to me.

I have looked up some steamship sailings, and I find that there is a Canadian Pacific boat, "The Empress of Japan" which leaves Vancouver August 15, and arrives in Shanghai on September 1. If I took this boat I would like the cheapest First Class rate which is, I believe, $50⁴ per person.

There is a Dollar Line boat which sails from San Francisco on August 14, and arrives in Shanghai on September 4 (President Johnson). This boat has First Class and also Tourist or Special Class. The rate for the special class is $183 and the cheapest First Class rate is $346. I would appreciate your advice as to whether the tourist class would be satisfactory. Also as to whether there is a better arrangement than by either of these boats.

I believe that these arrival dates will be satisfactory to Mr. Buck as I understand that he will be away during August and does not want me to arrive before September 1.

I will want a room for myself and wife.

What procedure is necessary in order to get the clergy fare certificates for Railroad travel across the United States?

Stanley W. Warren*

Mr. Stanley W. Warren,

My dear Mr. Warren:

Let me acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 20 with which you enclose two executed copies of the contract between yourself and the University of Nanking. I am forwarding one copy of the contract to the field and am keeping one copy in our files here in New York.

As to sailings, the three lines usually employed by our staff members and other missionary workers are the Dollar Line, the Canadian Pacific, and the N.Y.K. Line. Accommodations can be secured on all of these lines at varying rates.

The Empress of Japan sailing from Vancouver on August 15 and arriving at Shanghai on September 1 is one of the best of the Canadian Pacific vessels. However, our information does not agree with the figures you gave as to the cheapest first class accommodations on this boat. Our table shows that the minimum first class Empress of Japan from Vancouver to Shanghai is $355 for each ticket. From this figure we could get discounts of 10 and 5 per cent. The second class accommodations on the Empress of Japan are quite good, and would cost $235 less a discount of 5%.

The President Johnson on the Dollar Line sailing from San Francisco August 14 and arriving at Shanghai September 4 is one of the newer around-the-world steamers, and since the Dollar Line is now making a special effort to attract passengers to their special class accommodations you would probably find that you would get very good service on this vessel. We could get a discount of 5% from the special class price of $185, and could get discounts of 10 and 5 per cent from the first class rate of $346.

The N.Y.K. Line, operated by the Japanese, has first class accommodations at a minimum of $346, and has cabin class and second class accommodations at prices ranging down to $175. However, there are no sailings on the N.Y.K. Line that exactly fit in with your plans. The Tatsuta Maru sails from San Francisco on August 6 and arrives in Shanghai August 26. The Shinyo Maru sails from San Francisco on August 22 and arrives at Shanghai September 14. The former of these steamers is probably a little too early for you and the latter a little too late.

Thus it appears that your best arrangements would be on either the Empress of Japan or the President Johnson. Whether you wish first class accommodations or something less expensive is a matter for your decision. We will be glad to help you in securing any type of accommodations you may designate.

We are enclosing herewith Clergy Application blanks to be filled out by yourself and your fiancée. A sheet of instructions accompanies the blanks so I believe you will have no difficulty. If you will return these blanks to our office we will be glad to secure the certificates for you and will charge against your account the cost of the fees.

Miss Priest authorized us to advance to you at any time between the execution of your contract and the date of your sailing up to $1,000. We will be glad to make disbursements to you on this authorization as you may desire. Please let us know any further ways in which we can be of service to you.

TRANSFER

Dear Mr. Garside,

I have received information from the Dollar Steamship Lines to the effect that the President Wilson will follow the schedule at present shown for the President Johnson. I have a plan of this boat. We wish to go at the cheapest rate which is $346 per person. I have picked the following staterooms in order of preference- 116, 117, 109, 110, 125, 126, 133, 107, 108, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 45, etc. Will you book one of these cabins at your earliest convenience, (two passages)

Will you pay the entire fare from your office or will you send me the money, and let me pay it? We are planning on leaving Ithaca August 3. I would like to have the balance of the $1000 which is not needed for the steamship fare sent to me about July 20.

Will your office arrange for the visas for China and Japan? We have made application for our passports.

TRANSFER

Dear Mr. Garside,

I have received Mr. Evans' letter of July 3, in which he states that there will be some difficulty in booking our passages on the President Wilson. In case you are unable to book a room on this boat I suggest that you try the Empress of Japan on the Canadian Pacific Line. I believe this boat leaves Vancouver on August 15, and arrives at Shanghai on September 1. As the time is getting short I will not want to wait until I see the plan of the boat. I will want something on the cheapest First Class rate, and as near similar to the rooms which I suggested on the President Wilson, as is possible. There is no other boat on the Dollar Line which it is convenient for us to take.

In regard to making payment for the tickets, I prefer that the payment be made from your office as stated in Mr. Evans' letter. I asked about it merely to make sure as to the proper procedure.

My dear Mr. Warren:

Let me acknowledge receipt of your letter of July 6.

The Dollar Line has guaranteed that they will find a suitable cabin for Mrs. Warren and yourself on the President Wilson sailing of August 14. I think, therefore, that we need not feel any concern as to your ability to secure satisfactory accommodations on this boat at the minimum first class rate, even though it may be some time before we know what space is actually assigned. Under such circumstances, while there is always the possibility that the company may assign a somewhat unsatisfactory cabin, there is also the possibility that the company may make available at the minimum rate, in order to fulfil its guarantee, some cabin that ordinarily brings a higher price.

Our office will be glad to make payment for the tickets and to take care of the small fees for visas and clergy fare certificates; and will then send you the balance of $1,000 we have been authorized to advance. Since you state in your letter of July 2 that you would like to have this advance made about July 20, we will send you the steamship tickets at the same time.

I believe that we have not as yet received from you the Clergy Fare applications. It would be well for us to secure these Clergy Fare Certificates at the earliest convenient date so as to avoid the possibility of any hitch at the last moment.

You will note that you have been assigned cabin #127. This is usually charged for at a rate considerably higher than the minimum first class, inasmuch as it contains a private bath. However, the steamship company is letting you have it at the minimum first class rate but is locking the bathroom. You will note that toilet facilities for both men and women are conveniently located just at the foot of the flight of stairs in front of your cabin door, and baths are a short distance aft. I trust you will find these accommodations thoroughly satisfactory.

Your letter of July 22 received. The accommodations on the boat look very satisfactory.

I am wondering about the visas for Japan. There are two visas in the passports, one of which is marked "China". The other one has no English on it, and I am wondering whether it is for Japan, or some addition to the Chinese visa. I do not note that you have made any charge for obtaining Japanese visas. If this second visa is ^{not} for Japan I will send the passports back to you if there is time. We will have to have them not later than August 1.

I assume that the charge for Clergy Certificates is for the Railroad Certificates. How soon can we expect these certificates?
