The pledge letter for this came from Mr. Franklin H. Warner and reads as follows:

dated Oct. 21, 1929 at Honolulu -

" I do not think I have told you that the Warner family have decided to go ahead on the main unit of the gymnasium. My mother is contributing $15,000 and I will put in a like amount and my sister, Mrs. Seabury C. Mastick of Pleasantville, N. Y. $5,000, making a total of $35,000. I have instructed the building department at Yenching to go ahead, but this should be confirmed by the Finance Committee. They will get the stone on on the job and the steel ordered so they can go ahead next spring."

Mr. Franklin H. Warner,

Let me thank you for your letter of August 28th, with its enclosed check for $5,000.00 toward the Warner Gymnasium. We are entering this as having been received from your sister, Mrs. Westick, and the Promotional Office is sending her an acknowledgment and receipt.

Since you do not expect to be in California in time for the inauguration of the new President of the University of California, I will today circularize the Executive Committee with the suggestion that Mr. Ernest Evans be asked to represent the University at this ceremony.

We note the information you give as to your movements during the next two months. We hope that you will be able to attend the meeting of the Finance Committee which should be held this month, and possibly other meetings which may be arranged before your departure for the west.

Very cordially yours,

Dear Miss Matthews:

Two or three days after writing you on March 11 Miss Chen with little Miss Wan Sen Cheo came to see me. I went over her high school record which St. Andrew's Priory had sent up by her and found it quite satisfactory in every respect. She has done good quality of work in a well rounded college preparatory program. The only additional thing to complete entrance requirements will be to make a satisfactory score in the Thurstone College Aptitude examination. This is administered to all applicants for admission to our University and to Yenching the latter part of April or early in May. There is every reason to expect that Miss Chen will make a creditable score in this. I was favorably impressed with the little lady and shall be interested to do all that I can in helping her with preparations for transfer of her high school record, etc. to Mr. Mei, the Registrar at Yenching. After she had talked with me for a bit we went over to interview Dr. Lee and Mr. Char whom I mentioned in my previous letter to you. They talked with Miss Chen and I believe tested her out to some extent in ability in the Chinese language. They recommend additional study by her and I have given her the set of books provided for this purpose. Mr. Char, in a note to me, states that he feels with this additional study Miss Chen will be able to carry on satisfactorily so far as the Chinese language is concerned.

Please feel free to write me again if any additional questions come to your mind or if there is anything further that you wish me to do in Miss Chen's behalf.

Sincerely yours,

H. B. Maclellan

Dear Miss Matthews:

I saw Miss MacNeil on the 13th. It took me a long time to find a convenient time to see her because when I get out of school, her office is closed. I finally asked Sister Paula if I might go during school hours. And she said I not only might, but I must. I wanted to write you about it right away, but this being Lent, we have Evensong at the cathedral in the afternoons, and we had an Auxiliary meeting on Sunday during writing hour, at which Dr. Staley gave a talk on India. This is my first opportunity to write.

Miss MacNeil read me one of Mr. Mei's letters and looked over my English report card. She seemed quite satisfied with that. Then she took me to Mr. Char and Mr. Lee who are in charge of the Chinese department. Mr. Char gave me a quiz and said that he thinks I will be able to make it if I get more practice. I should speak it more. Miss MacNeil gave me some Chinese books to look over. In Honolulu very few people speak good Chinese. Realizing this and after what Mr. Char told me, I thought it might be wise for me to go back in the early summer and study Chinese a while before school starts, about in the middle of September. But I don't know where my father is. I haven't heard from him for more than four months. I've written about six letters to his last address, but I haven't had any answers. If I knew where he is, I might be able to stay for the summer and study there.

On account of the situation in Northern China, Mr. Char said that it's doubtful whether the school will open on schedule in the fall. He suggested that I get in touch with Ginling College in Nanking, so if Yenching isn't opened, I can go to Ginling. Will you please let me know what you think I ought to do?

I must get this off the mailman's list.
very affectionately,
Mabel Chen

The Rev J. Leighton Stuart D.D.
President of Yenching University.

My dear Dr. Stuart.

I have learned from Mrs. George B. Barbour that you are in this country and so, with apologies, I am going to refer to you for information, as it takes so long to hear from China or Honolulu.

I am responsible for the welfare of a young Chinese girl, for some years a student at St. Andrew's Priory, Honolulu. Mabel Chen was born in China and was put as a student at the Priory by her father, then a resident of Honolulu. Later her father, having returned to China, recalled Mabel. She spent some years in HongKong, I think, this was in her early teens. While at the Priory, she had been baptized and confirmed. She returned to Honolulu about five years ago, on a student's passport.

My sister was Principal of the Priory for eleven years, during which time I was a good deal in Honolulu and became interested in Mabel. She is a girl of character and has a good mind. Her father has married again and takes very little interest in her. She has been on a scholarship at the Priory. Some years ago I promised her that she should have a college education on finishing at her present school which she does this June. I think Mabel hoped to go to the University of Hawaii, but I have become convinced that it would be a poor preparation for life in China, and I doubt whether under present circumstances I could afford to support Mabel for four years in Honolulu.

This last year there have been a number of things to interest me in Yenching. I have known Miss Nettie Son-Hoo while a student at Michigan. Miss Martha Choy, a Korean from Honolulu is a personal friend as well. She has gone to Yenching since Christmas. I have heard both Mrs. Hocking and Mrs. Sibley speak most highly of the University and within the month have made the acquaintance of Dr. and Mrs. Barbour.

As you will see from the enclosed, I have been in communication with Miss MacNeil of the University of Hawaii, to whom I was referred by Dean Hoo. However, there are a few matters about which I still need information. Neither Dean Hoo or Miss MacNeil have given me any idea of the cost entailed. Mrs. Barbour tells me that $ 250.00 gold ought to cover Mabel's expenses for a year. She will need Chinese and warmer clothes. I must allow her an adequate allowance for this item and incidentals, which with tuition and travel this first year I fear will amount to all of $500.00. However it would cost almost twice that to keep her in Honolulu.

Another serious question with me, perhaps you alone can answer. It is touched on in the letter I have just this minute received from Mabel and so I enclose it as well. I have been wondering if I should send a young girl to North China this summer. Should the Japanese take Peiping, would Yenching continue to function? Could she be transferred to Ginling temporarily, and would the charges be about the same?

Friends in Honolulu will see about Mabel's passage to Shanghai. She tells me that she is not afraid to travel alone, as she has done it before, and that she has friends in Shanghai who could meet her on arrival there. I confess that I should be more anxious about the railroad journey from there to Peiping. Could the University arrange to have her travel with other students returning to Yenching in the fall?

Mabel's English is exceptionally good, as I think you can judge from the letter enclosed ; there seems to be more doubt about her Chinese. She has been supposed to attend Chinese Language school in Honolulu, but she is not overly strong and at times I believe the afternoon school has been too much for her strength and allowed to slide for a time. She is a devout child and amusingly self-reliant and frank for a Chinese. I hope she can be prepared for a happy life of service for China, in whatever line her abilities lie. I shall be most grateful for any advice and for friendship shown to her in the future.

I was in China in 1921, for two weeks in Peiping, and have many Chinese friends but mostly in Central China where our Episcopal missions are located. It has been a great pleasure to meet the Barbours. I wish they were returning this summer, then I could feel perfectly safe about Mabel, even if Yenching could not open. As it is I do feel anxious about sending her over, perhaps to find herself adrift. You will see from her letter that her father is not to be depended upon.

Ever faithfully yours,

Elizabeth Matthews.

Miss Elizabeth Matthews

Dear Miss Matthews:

Your letter was awaiting me on my arrival here. I am much interested in planning to have Mabel Chen go to Yenching. The problem of expense is one that can be very much influenced by sums available; in other words, Honolulu students, with American students, tend to spend more money than other Chinese do. $600 Local Currency, which would be $150 American money, would be enough for simple, economical living, and in fact not a few of our students actually get along on less. I would suggest that from $200 to $250 Gold be allowed, with the expectation that the lower figure be aimed at. Travel by Tourist, or even Third Class, would not be at all hard on students and still further reduces the cost. I have secured the following figures from the Dollar Steamship Line office in this city:-

Honolulu to Shanghai -	Tourist Class	$148.00
	Third Class	69.50

Rates on the S.S. PRESIDENT HOOVER and PRESIDENT COOLIDGE are slightly higher.

Regarding the very pertinent question as to safety in China next autumn, no one can speak with finality. My whole expectation is, however, that matters will have cleared somehow before next autumn in a way that will enable us to continue as usual. We are all going on this assumption. I shall be back at Yenching by the middle of June, and if Mabel, on her arrival in Shanghai or preferably earlier, will give me her dates, I can make efforts to see that she comes with someone else or is advised as to matters of safety. While this is a very natural anxiety, I incline to think that it can be assumed that she will be able to carry out her plans as far as Japanese threatened invasion is concerned. If, however, things take a turn to the contrary, you might at any time within the next four weeks write to me here, or after that to our Vice-President, who is continuing in America, Dr. N. Gist Gee.

Very sincerely yours,

JLS.A

Dear Mr. May:

Owing to the very sudden death of our former Executive Secretary, Mr. Lewis, a considerable number of pledges from friends earnestly interested in the University were not collected. This was probably not the fault of these friends but a misfortune attendant upon the death of Mr. Lewis.

We have recently made a very thorough examination of our records and we are taking the liberty of reminding you and others of pledges recorded in your names. Feeling assured that you wish to help Yenching now just as much as you did in 1923, I am sure you will not feel that it is amiss for me to call your attention to the fact that according to our records you pledged on April 6, 1923, the sum of $500 to the University. Your pledge card bears the statement that you "would increase this gift to $1000 if a dormitory was erected and paid for by Rochester contributions and named Rochester Dormitory." Unfortunately we were unable to carry out this plan. We are, however, putting forth every possible effort at the present time to complete a campaign for $500,000 for which President Stuart recently spent seven months in this country at a time when he was very badly needed in China. We have practical assurance of about $450,000 of that money, but the remaining $50,000 must in some way be found before the end of this month.

Every one of these former pledges that we collect will help us to save a conditional pledge of $90,000, made by a Philadelphia friend, which becomes void unless we have the entire $500,000 assured by July 1st. This is included as part of the $450,000 mentioned above.

Can you possibly help us out at this time with the amount you pledged in 1923?

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. and Mrs. May:

Busy people usually appreciate being reminded of pledges to community chests and similar organizations. Therefore, perhaps it will not seem an impertinence for me at this time to call your attention to a subscription you made in the amount of $200.00, payable within three years from the date on which you signed the card, - June 24, 1935.

On June 26th last year I reminded you of this, but since that was so near the vacation period, you may have been out of town. I am therefore writing you a little earlier this year, not with a view to pressing you, because I recognize that the matter will receive attention in due time, but since there is no definite payment date on the pledge, I naturally feel some responsibility in the matter. Do not feel the necessity of sending a check for the entire amount unless convenient. You may feel quite sure that we shall appreciate any part of it, due to the fact that we shall shortly be coming to grips with the annual struggle to clear the Yenching bills.

If you can help us, we shall be most grateful.
