PREFACE

Arrangement and Method The following notes sent to Secretaries of Missions with lists for correction explain the nature and scope of this DIRECTORY.

The Directory is arranged in four parts:

I. Societies In this part is given first the official legal name of the Society or Board, in capital letters, followed by an abbreviated or popular name (in parenthesis) in common use in China, then by initials in IONIC CAPITALS, without punctuation, for convenience in reference.

The Home Address given is that of the main administrative centre abroad, or in China.

The correct title of the Society in Chinese characters should follow.

If the work in China is divided into Missions, Dioceses, Districts, Conferences or other administrative units of more than one resident station, these units are arranged in the alphabetical order of the designation of the unit, even if this involves a violation of the alphabetical order of provinces.

In each administrative unit the stations with resident missionaries are arranged in alphabetical order by provinces, and then alphabetically by the name of the station as Romanized by the Chinese Postal Guide (Edition of January, 1917). In each case it is intended to give the Chinese character before the Romanized form.

The date of first residence by missionaries of the society concerned should follow the Romanized form of the station name. It is desirable also to add the date of first residence in the province if this can be given. In case a station or province has been thus opened, or occupied and afterward closed and re-occupied, both dates should be given, or a note should be made indicating whether the date given is that of first occupation or the date when the last continuous occupation began.

The names of missionaries resident in each station are given in alphabetical order rather than in order of seniority. Give first the Chinese name, preferably three characters, in the foreign order (1, 2, 3), then symbol (*, §, †, etc.) indicating status, surname, title (if Miss or Mrs.), Christian names or initials or honorary degrees, position in Mission (if Bishop, Superintendent, Director, Secretary, Treasurer, Statistical Secretary, etc.), date of first arrival in China (not necessarily the same as that of joining this particular mission). In case of married men the words "& wife" follow the degrees or initials and precede the date of arrival, unless the dates of arrival of husband and wife differ, in which case both should be given.

Language Students are indicated by italics. If this is not to be the principal occupation for the next year of any person whose name is now in italics, mark "not student."

Code Books. A beginning has been made in indicating the use of two Codes generally employed. If desired, other codes in use may be indicated. It is particularly desired to learn the stations as well as the Societies which actually have copies of these code books and a note will be made by a symbol printed by the name of the station, if the information is supplied to the editor. † may be used for Missions Code and ¶ for China Inland Mission Code.

In some cases a missionary serves more than one society, in which case the name is entered under each and is followed by the initials of the other in parenthesis.

Degrees. The use of academic degrees is desired by some and is offensive to others. So far as is possible individual preferences will be followed if made known to the editor in writing.

The Names of Societies are arranged according to the main denominational group to which they belong, Anglican, Baptist, Congregational, Lutheran, Methodist, Presbyterian, China Inland Mission, or Other Societies. In each group the order of Societies is determined by the alphabetical order of the abbreviations chosen to represent the Society. These abbreviations conform, so far as possible, to those used in the publications of the Continuation Committee of the World Missionary Conference, and in the Missions Code. Uniformity from year to year will greatly aid in standardizing and familiarizing these to the general public interested in missionary matters.

In general it is not intended to include the names of Chinese employed in missionary work except when their relation to the Societies and their remuneration is upon the same basis as the foreign missionary. It is intended to include all non-Chinese regularly in missionary employ, whether they have "missionary standing" and a vote in the missionary organization or not. The regular foreign teaching or office staffs should be included, but may be specially marked if desired.

II. Geographical Grouping The Second Part of the Directory re-groups the names of missionaries by their geographical location, alphabetically by province, station, abbreviations of Society names, and surname of the missionary. In this part no Chinese characters are given, no names of administrative units and no dates except those of the opening of the stations.

III. Alphabetical The Third Part is a single alphabetical list of missionaries giving titles and names, degrees, (and wife), initials of society and postal address.

The Second and Third Parts are compiled in the offices of the China Continuation Committee from the corrected sheets of the First Part and may differ, to conform to information received during process of publication (which occupies four months). Changes reported before final proofs are read will be made in these parts.

IV. Organizations The Fourth Part is a list of National or Inter-denominational or Union Organizations and Committees of importance to more than a single society.

The names will ordinarily largely duplicate those in other parts, indicating the voluntary elective or appointive relationships of those serving the general missionary activities aside from their employment by their respective societies.

Special Note The DIRECTORY is not intended to take the place of the Educational Directory or special Society lists, but any suggestions for its improvement or extension will be greatly appreciated by the Editor. It is not published for private profit but for the service of the missionary cause and profits are devoted to reduction in price or improvement in contents. The costs of securing the information desired, of arranging material for publication and all editorial service are borne by the China Continuation Committee, and are not charged against the cost of the Directory.

Statistical Information The total number of names listed differs in Parts I, II and III, as corrections are noted during publication. The number in Part III (alphabetical), which is most recent and accurate, is as follows:—

Single men 457, Married men 1978, Total men 2435; Single women 1970, Wives 1978, Total women 3948, Grand total 6383; a net increase of 219 over the issue of 1917, and of 519 over 1916. Of these 1145 are indicated as absent during all or part of 1918; 312 as language students; 274 names entered in the 1917 DIRECTORY do not appear in this issue, of whom 48 are deceased and 63 are single ladies who have married. The changes in address number 315.

Acknowledgments. The Editor desires to acknowledge his indebtedness to over three hundred correspondents whose loyal and ready co-operation in supplying information and in calling attention to errors has made possible whatever degree of accuracy and completeness has been attained and whose suggestions have led to improvements in each annual issue. He also desires to acknowledge the painstaking assistance in preparation of copy and in proof-reading of Messrs. W. H. and B. J. Chen.

Any further suggestions for the improvement of this DIRECTORY will be welcomed by the Editor.

CHARLES L. BOYNTON.

Shanghai, May 21st, 1918.

DIRECTORY OF MISSIONARIES IN CHINA

INDEX OF SOCIETIES

In the following list the name given in Jenson Type is the name under which the Society appears in the World Atlas of Christian Missions and the Missions Code. Names in Roman type only are of societies not entered in either of these books. The name in parenthesis is that which was used in the China Mission Year Book 1915, in case this differs from the form used in the World Atlas or Missions Code, while the denominational group under which it appears in the DIRECTORY is given in italics.

The initials in IONIC TYPE indicate the abbreviations which have been adopted by the China Continuation Committee for use in future issues of the China Mission Year Book. With few exceptions they are the initials used in the World Atlas and the Missions Code. Initials preceded by an asterisk (*) are those used in previous issues of the China Mission Year Book where these differ. Those enclosed in brackets are new abbreviations adopted by the China Continuation Committee.

CHINA MISSION YEAR BOOK

The editors of the above annual have decided to change the date of the publication of the ninth issue (1918) so as to have it appear at the close of the year rather than during the summer. The forthcoming volume will contain the usual quota of useful and interesting information concerning The General Situation in China, The Peoples of China, Evangelism, Education, Medical and Philanthropic work and Literature.

Previous volumes now available include

A MANUAL FOR YOUNG MISSIONARIES TO CHINA

Edited by

ARTHUR H. SMITH

Forty five Years a Missionary of the American Board in China.

From the Preface

This little volume, intended to correspond in some measure to the current Mission Study text-books, is a product—albeit a slow product—of Missionary Evolution in response to a more or less well-recognized need. A score or two of missionaries have kindly examined the preliminary draft of some of the chapters, many of them making suggestions which have been adopted. Each chapter and sub-chapter has been read to different bodies of students (Language Schools) and the practical value of the advice has thus been tested.

Price One Dollar Post Free

The three articles on the Physical Life of the Missionary, The Missionary and the Study of the Chinese Language, and Elementary Account keeping, have been published as separate pamphlets, each 10 cents
